New Lead Titles - ideal for Christmas!

New programmes on DVD and now available on a USB stick. Downloads also being added.

Following our popular series featuring heritage railway galas and special events over the decades, our latest one added to the range contains some 40 years of the Swanage Railway and its vast number of locomotives attending over the years.

New titles in our Locomotive Profile series with recently overhauled 'Merchant Navy' class No. 35005 Canadian Pacific and the victorian-built LSWR 'T'9 No. 30120 (SR120) being added to our growing list.

Midland Railway '4F' No. 43924 is celebrated in its very own book by Fiona Kennaugh. This last remaining Midland version of the '4F' class also achieved fame by being the first engine to depart from Woodhams' yard at Barry in 1968 and so beginning the great race to save a further 212 locomotives.

New ways of viewing our programmes

With an ever-changing world in communications and the viewing of television and more specialist programmes, we are increasing the possibilities for the viewing of Kingfisher titles. With the majority of our programmes now available in either DVD or on a USB stick it means that you can view now on modern TV sets or computers.

The range of programmes available on USB sticks will increase to most railway, countryside/towns and ocean liners. Please do let us know if you require a particular title on a USB which is not listed. The USB stick will be in a DVD style box with cover. Many programmes are also being made available on our download system with more being added every month, including some very special viewing offers.

'Best-selling Book titles'

'Return to the Hayling Branch Line'

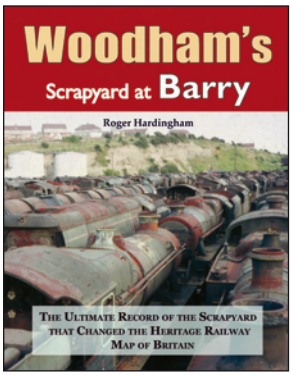

'Return to the Hayling Island Branch' contains the amazing photographic material taken by 'Mr Hayling' Alan Bell over several decades. His archives are the most comprehensive ever collected about the 4½-mile branch which once operated between Havant and Hayling Island until closure in November 1963. Hundreds of photographs, colourful rare plans of stations and the Langston Bridge, and details of the branch's operations are contained in this fabulous book.

Chapters include - Route Description of the line - Stations along the Line - Hayling Goods Shed - Operations and Signalling - The LB&SCR Terrier Class - The Langston Bridge - Decline and Renewed Interest -Final Closure

'Woodham's Scrapyard at Barry'

'The Ultimate record of the Scrapyard that changed the Heritage Railway map of Britain' By Roger Hardingham

Our best-selling hardback book of 2026 with over 360 colour and black & white photographs. This is the 'real' story of how the engines arrived at Barry from the late 1950s until the end of steam in 1968 and how 213 of them survived. From the Woodham family archive, we see rare photographs showing the yard where the scrapping of wagons started and then the arrival of engines from Swindon and gradually many from other parts of Britain. From 1968 locomotives started to be purchased for preservation and this book details how they were bought and who, in some cases, were involved in the process. The arrival of the 1980s and the 'Barry Rescue' project is detailed which saw the final engine depart in January 1990.

Hardback, 160 pages on gloss art paper, 363 colour and black & white photographs £30 plus £2 p+p

SPECIAL OFFER for Christmas - now just £10 plus p&p. 'The Bluebell Railway – A Line for All Seasons' By Michael Welch

*Final few copies remaining - From all the four seasons, the author describes all of the main achievements of the Bluebell from its very earliest days. The rare and important colour photographs portray the early train operations including the first in 1960 and of the rail tours that occurred using the line's engines in the local area. Various specials would be run as the line from East Grinstead to Sheffield Park and beyond to Lewes was preparing for complete closure.

Altogether a book to celebrate the Bluebell Railway's entry into seven decades of preservation.

Hardback book, 112 pages 160 photographs in full colour - £10 + £4 p&p

‘North East Steam - a Tribute’

By Michael Welch This book looks back at the final years of steam operations in the north east. With celebrations two years ago commemorating 200 years of our standard gauge railways, this book is full of photographs covering the areas which was one of the last bastions of steam traction in 1967. We see good quality views of main line steam with A4s, A1s and A3s and the final operations in the coal fields with class J27s and Q6s. Some superb shots by top photographers of this fascinating period in this north eastern region.

80-page large format paperback, 115 photographs - £18.95

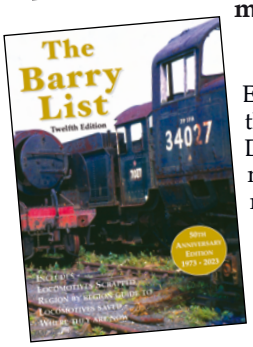

‘150 Years of the Settle-Carlisle Railway’

A special publication dedicated to the 150th anniversary of the line. It was in 1875 that the first goods movements operated over the new Midland Railway route to Scotland. From 1st may 1876, the public were able to board the first trains which operated from Leeds, through Skipton and up to Settle and the border city of Carlisle.

This special tribute book covers the 150-year history from its 6-year construction showing very rare new photographs from that period, through to operations and gradual decline and reprieve in 1989. The books delves into all those fascinating aspects and is full of colour and black & white images.

Limited copies available - large format paperback, 215 mm x 273 mm, 48 pages, colour and black & white archive - £9.95

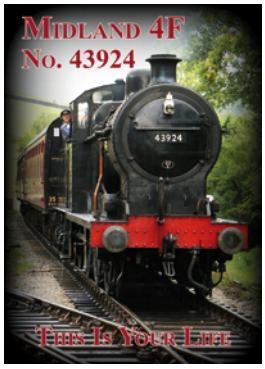

‘The Barry List No. 12’ - 50th Anniversary Edition

Edited by Roger Hardingham. Since the last edition, the eleventh edition, there have been many changes to the locomotives that escaped from Dai Woodhams’ yard at Barry. More have steamed into further service; many have changed locations; some have been scrapped to make way for new-build projects and dozens have now been withdrawn for overhauls.

‘The Barry List – Twelfth Edition’ details all of the changes up to date in April 2023; full list of locomotives saved from Woodham Brothers at Barry; those of the 213 saved which have steamed so far; where they are all located; those which will never steam again and those which have helped construct new-builds. 48 pages A5 paperback – £4.95

‘Midland 4F 43924 - This is Your Life’

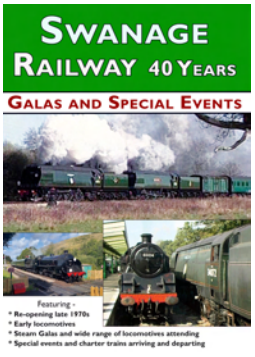

The story of this sole-surviving original 4F which also has claim to fame in being the very first locomotive to depart Woodhams’ scrapyard at Barry in September 1968. The background as to how the Midland 4F Society was formed and how they purchased and moved the engine, by rail, from South Wales to Keighley. Tributes to promoters Ian Johnson and Alec Macdonald. Compiled by Alec’s daughter, Fiona Kennaugh, with additional engineering notes by Ralph Ingham. Full of fascinating photographs of the early history of 43924 and its days operating on the KWVR.

Paperback, colour and B&W photos 32 pages - £9.95
